

$591,500 Bonds Sold In Week Of Drive

Reach 16 Per Cent Of Quota Volunteers Making House-to-House Canvas; Ardmore District Leads

Bond sales in the Lower Merion-Narberth area totaled $591,500 at the end of the first week of the Sixth War Loan Drive, it was announced yesterday.

The figure amounts to 16 per cent of the $3,696,000 quota for the Township and Borough.

In addition to sales by solicitors, who began work November 20, the total is augmented by sales of E, F and G bonds by issuing agents since November 1, which are officially counted in the campaign.

Several hundred volunteer workers are making a house-to-house canvass of the Lower Merion-Narberth area.

In the first reporting of bond sales, the Ardmore district was out in front with $216,000.

War Bond Gifts - Buy War Bonds for Christmas gifts and make your giving help bring victory nearer, the Lower Merion-Narberth War Loan Committee urged this week.

"Nothing could be more appropriate as Christmas gifts than War Bonds," the Committee declared. "They are an investment in victory, there are no shortages in bonds; they are easily obtainable from your neighborhood solicitor or local issuing agent. Place your order today and ease your mind of the problem of what to give for Christmas."

050. Bryn Mawr was in second place with sales of $129,250. Merion ran third with sales amounting to $92,450.

Several allocations have been received for sizeable amounts from chain stores and corporations which do business in this area. Their policy was commended by the Lower Merion-Narberth War Bond Committee as a fine example of civic responsibility.

"The success of this Sixth War Loan Drive here depends upon the time and energy put into the job by the volunteer solicitors and the cooperation of our citizens in buying bonds to the limit of their ability," said Thomas Barnes, 2d, of Gladwyne, Lower Merion, district chairman. "We must do our part here at home by buying bonds so that our armed forces will be able to do theirs."

HERE AND THERE by BETSY-ANN

Captain William Shuber, Army Squadron navigator who has been in the Marianas for the past two years, decided to look up his friend Lt. Davis, who has been in the States since the summer. He had heard that Lt. Davis was on one of the islands and not finding him on the first island he tried another. This time he was successful, and when he arrived Lt. Davis and some of the men ran down to see who was arriving by plane. Captain Shuber, recognizing Lt. Davis, gave a fictitious name, which puzzled them, then Captain Shuber said, "Perhaps you'll recognize me when I remove my head gear." They were delighted to see each other again and Captain Shuber spent his four day leave on the island. While swimming one day Captain Shuber lost a signet ring he had had since pre-school days. It was just one of those things that couldn't be helped so they gave it up as lost. About a month later while diving Lt. Davis spied a ring in the water and dived down and found it to be the ring lost by Captain Shuber. Lt. Davis sent the ring to his mother, Mrs. Eugene Davis, and she returned it to Mr. Shuber. Captain Shuber is at present stationed at Langley Field, Va.

Truck Driver Killed In City Line Accident; Merion Man Involved

James O'Donnell, 31, Philadelphia truck driver, was crushed to death when his truck crashed into the rear of a car which had been parked on City Line Ave., south of Raynham Rd., last Friday night.

Driver of the coupe, which crashed into the rear of the truck, was a Merion man, Archibald H. Ehle, 65, of 731 Hazlehurst Ave.

O'Donnell was pronounced dead at the Bryn Mawr Hospital where doctors said both legs were crushed and his abdomen lacerated.

O'Donnell had stopped his truck to transfer it to another driver and take a bus to his home at 345 W. 56th St., Louis Culbertson, 43, 115 E. Locust, Philadelphia, who was to take over the truck, suffered cuts and bruises. O'Donnell was employed by the Johns-Manville Corporation.

The canteen is still in need of furniture. The regular session to be held in Lansdale on Jan. 9.

300 STUDENTS ATTEND CANTEEN OPENING; ITS 'HEP', 'SOLID', 'CATSY', 'OKEY', THEY SAY

By DAVID MALICKSON Student Correspondent

300 Lower Merion Senior High students and alumni attended the grand opening of the L. M. Student Canteen last Friday night at the Ardmore Woman's Club, Ardmore.

That the weeks of preparation and decorations were appreciated by the students was evident by the large turn-out, expressions of approval such as its "hep", "solid", "catsy", "okey", "sends me", etc.

The Wednesday night previous to the opening, the canteen was waxed, the cement floor for dancing, scrubbed the corridor spotless, and put everything shipshape.

With no help from anyone except Charles Hutton, Senior High faculty member, and donations from interested parents, students cleaned the basement of the Woman's Club cemented the walls and floors, whitewashed the ceiling, painted the woodwork and walls, made and hung curtains, installed the refreshment bar, and public address system, and completed other minor chores to make the canteen a suitable place.

The L. M. Student Canteen is the second such undertaking by students on the Main Line. Previously, Radnor High had established a youth center. Similar canteens have been springing up all over the country. From coast to coast students, and sometimes welfare boards of these communities have found a need for an outlet from the usual routine of student entertainment for teen-agers.

Russell Blackwood, treasurer, has announced that a total of $350 was collected at the door from the sale of membership tickets ($1.20 per year) and from the admission charge for outside guests. This sum plus the receipts from the refreshment bar and from the ten cents service charge for members each week will finance all the canteen needs for the remainder of the 1945 year.

Former Lower Merion students present at the canteen opening included: Bill Ellemaker, Ned Cansalmo, Gene Machil, James Doyle and James Grundy. The only problem which confronted the board of directors at present is that if as high a percentage of students attend the Canteen each week as did the number Friday, a new site will be needed. Secondly, the canteen is still in need of furniture—the kind you can "put your feet on."

The only grown-ups present at the Canteen last week were Mr. and Mrs. H. Gill, Charles Hutton, Mrs. J. Sledeman and a representative from the local police force.

Warns County Men In 30-38 Draft Group

Montgomery County draft registrants in the 30-38 group were warned this week by Col. Richard K. Mellon, State Selective Service Director, that they "may be subject to induction" unless shown by Local Board records to be in war production or an activity supporting the "national health, safety or interest."

Mellon instructed the county draft boards to "review carefully" all such registrants and process for induction those failing to meet the occupational test and also those who refuse to furnish accurate information as to their current employment.

$60,000 Fire Razes Ardmore Grocery

Narberth, Oakmont And Manoa Companies Called Out

Lower Merion Township's fire marshal and Bryn Mawr's fire chief were treated for an over-dose of smoke as an aftermath of the $60,000 fire that gutted McIntyre's food store in Ardmore early Monday morning and damaged four apartments and two offices upstairs.

Four other firemen were overcome by smoke and treated on the scene.

Fire Marshal Harvey W. Benson, Penn Wynne, and Chief Horace Parsons, Bryn Mawr, were treated at the Bryn Mawr Hospital for smoke congested lungs and inflamed eyes. Later Dr. James Seligman, Ardmore, examined the fire marshal and told him to remain quiet and at home for a couple of days.

Fire Marshal Benson estimated the damage at $60,000 for the building, $25,000 for the food store merchandise and the remainder to cover apartments and offices upstairs. It is his opinion, he said, that the building can be rebuilt without tearing down the outside walls.

The two-story brick building at 17 W. Lancaster Ave., is owned by the Fidelity Philadelphia Trust Co., and is covered by insurance. McIntyre's insurance on his stock

Rod and Gun Club Hold Capon Shoot

Still And Spinning Targets Used On Nash Farm

Scarcity of Thanksgiving turkeys and shortage of shotgun shells presented no serious handicap for the Lower Merion Rod and Gun Club at the Nash Farm, Nov. 19 when the club held a capon shoot instead of a turkey shoot, using plenty of small bore ammunition and comparatively few shotgun shells. The day, which was ideal for such an affair, brought out a large crowd and everyone who attended tried his luck at the targets during the afternoon.

Winners of capons on still targets were: Billy A. Brown, Wynnewood; Fred Burnside, Narberth; Sabie Censore, Narberth; Joel Rubincam, Narberth, and Paul B. Stoops, Narberth.

The afternoon's fun was climaxed by the firing of a capon on a moving target, a shooting contest of keen competition.

Winners of the first trap shoot were: Tied for 1st place: Wayne Burnside, Narberth; William J. Censore, Narberth; James P. Lewis, Jr., Wynnewood. (Wayne Burnside won the shoot-off).

Tied for 2nd place: Howell Dietrich, Upper Darby; Ernest Jenkins, Narberth, and Charles E. Spencer, Sr., Upper Darby.

Winners of the second trap shoot were: Tied for 1st place: Charles Latch, Narberth, and Ellen Dietrich, Upper Darby. (Charles Latch won the shoot-off).

Tied for 2nd place: Howard Cotter, Narberth; Howell Dietrich, Upper Darby; Robin R. Daubert, Narberth, and Owen B. Schmidt, Sr., Narberth.

In rifle contests, capons were won on spinning board targets as well as in an off-hand position rifle match. Lloyd DuBois of Bala-Cynwyd, Ernest Jenkins of Narberth, and Ellen Dietrich of Upper Darby placed first, second and third, respectively in the off-hand position rifle contest.

Victor Sweet of Ardmore, chairman of the Club's rifle committee, and George Floyd, Sr., of Penn Valley, chairman of the trap committee, said they hoped to schedule another shoot before Christmas for the sportsmen.

Narberth, Heavy Choice For Title, Starts Chase On Coatesville Court

Awaiting Start of Title Chase

BOBBY SUITER ... he's Narberth's big hope.

BILL TORPAN ... he'll lead Brookline.

Five Contenders Rated Much Stronger Than in '42

Short on numbers but long on quality, the Main Line Basketball League resumes operations after a lapse of two years next Monday night.

Brookline, a four-time champion, will be challenged by Penn Steel of Chester at Haverford Senior High School and Narberth will travel to Coatesville to oppose the Steel Co. A. A. in the opening game of the season.

Narberth will open its home season next Wednesday night with Chester at Bala-Cynwyd Junior High while Wayne will make its bow Thursday night against Coatesville at Radnor High School.

Inasmuch as Upper Darby, champion in 1942, hasn't a team this year, the league will mark its return to competition with fitting ceremonies at the Brookline-Chester opener. The Brooks were runners-up in 1942.

Charles E. Nardden, of Narberth, president of the league, will be master of ceremonies. Among the guests expected are Bill Anderson, Lower Merion's famous coach and first president of the Main Line League; sports-caster Tom Moorhead and A. A. Retter, president of the Haverford Township Board of Commissioners, who has been invited to throw up the first ball.

Although only five teams are entered in title chase, the league shapes up as fiercer and stronger than in the past, yes, even including the days of the great Penn Wynne team. With no restrictions on eligibility, the teams have cornered about every outstanding player in the district not in the arms of a football team.

Teams have accepted the trend of the modern game toward exceptionally tall players, each being able to put lineups on the floor that will average well over six feet.

Narberth, which has never been able to win a court title, has the best known players and will start the race as a distinct favorite, but there isn't much to choose among the others.

Boys Club Closes Football Season

Game With West Philadelphia Falcons Is Scheduled

The Narberth Boys Club football team closes its 1944 schedule this coming Sunday, the fourth game, at Narberth, playing the West Philadelphia Falcons.

The Boys Club team is entirely made up of Narberth boys or from the surrounding vicinity. They have played a difficult season and have been defeated only once, by Good Counsel of Bryn Mawr. However they won from Bryn Mawr earlier in the season to offset this defeat.

The schedule and the scores to date:

Narberth, 7; Bryn Mawr, 7. Narberth, 6; Belmont, 0. Narberth, 12; Good Counsel, 6. Narberth, 3; Ard. All Stars, 0. Narberth, 6; Good Counsel, 24. Narberth, 18; Belmont, 0. Narberth, 12; Belmont, 6. Narberth, 6; Bryn Mawr, 6. Narberth, 20; West Phila., 0.

This Sunday will find a very first time at Narberth, playing the Borough on the gridiron against a very good West Philadelphia team. So, come on, all you Borough football fans and support the Narberth Boys' Club, who have been a credit to the Borough through the season.

Next week, the Narberth Boys' Club starts its basketball training and is entered in the Main Line Federation of Boys' Club and the season progresses. The boys have been provided with new uniforms and efforts are being made to secure the services of a good coach. Any man in the Borough who has coaching ability to coach will be welcomed and should contact the Director of Athletics of the Narberth Boys' Club, Howard D. Hatfield, 250 Haverford Ave., or call Narberth 21.

Season tickets are being sold this week in the Borough for the game this Sunday and it is hoped that everyone will buy one and use it at the game Sunday.

The Narberth Boys' Club is also taking up the teaching of boxing among its younger members and this coming Friday night some bouts are scheduled but only among the boys from 8 years of age to 14 years of age.

Ardmore Tail Gunner in Duffy's Tavern Fools Jerries, Weathers Hail of Flak

There was a hot time in "Duffy's Tavern" over Hanover, according to the B-17's tail gunner T/Sgt. Clark G. Merrill. Here's the Ardmore returnee's story of what happened:

"The Nazis got loose with a hail of flak that knocked out No. 2 engine, badly damaged Nos. 1 and 4 and tore a couple dozen holes in our fuselage. The feathering apparatus on No. 2 was wrecked and the engine started to wind-mill, shaking the plane so badly that the pilot and co-pilot couldn't see through the wind-shield. The vibrations knocked down the left landing gear and the wheel started going back and forth in four foot vibrations."

"We were losing altitude and when we got down to 6,000 feet, the pilot ordered us to be ready to bail out. I put on my chute and, shouted, 'See you all on the ground' and disconnected everything but my head set. The reason I left it on was that I was waiting for the navigator to tell us where we were, which would aid us in escaping from the enemy when we landed."

"I was waiting by the escape hatch when suddenly the vibrations stopped. Feeling sure the entire wing had come off, I was just about to jump when I heard the pilot shout, 'Hold it! The prop shaft broke and I think I can fly this thing back.'"

"If he'd waited a few more seconds, I would have been floating down to earth."

"We made it back to our base, and the pilot greased the big ship in. The Jerries will never know how close they came to having me for a guest," he concluded.

Veteran of 26 combat missions, Sgt. Merrill wears the Distinguished Flying Cross, the Air Medal and the Presidential Citation. He is now awaiting reassignment at AAF RS No. 1 here where he will be examined by doctors and interviewed by personnel specialists to determine where he will best fit in the AAF set-up.

Merrill is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey B. Merrill, of 2012 Chestnut Ave., Ardmore, and his wife, the former Clyde V. McVey, lives in Lancaster.

Lower Merion High School
NEWS LETTER

JOSEPH W. BECTON, S. 1/c, FPO SF, has been in the South Pacific for a year—the last Merionite he saw was Leatherneck HARRISON DE SHIELDS, five months ago. Your brother, JULIUS, was in to see us a few weeks ago and he looked swell. Let's hear from you again when you get time.

Hello, PFC. JOHN L. SULLIVAN, APO 83 NY. Yes, I thought you had given up writing; you used to be quite regular. Of course, you've been busy over there in France, so anytime will do. Football is under way and we're not doing so badly, as I write this. Cheerio to you, and don't let that lethargic tendency not to write creep upon you again.

Here's a letter from Mrs. Hays, giving me a new address for one of her sons, ROBERT F. HAYS, RM 3/c, FPO NY. He is on an LST boat. She adds that she hopes some day soon Robert will write me himself. Hi, Bob, I'm waiting.

PVT. WALLACE HANSBERRY is still going to school at Fort Myers, Fla., "shooting targets towed by another plane, high altitude flights wearing heated suits, oxygen masks and the good old throat mikes with ear phones." We'll see you when "school's out."

T/SGT. JOE CROWLEY, '42, Cherry Point, N. C., hasn't written for a long time, but mention in the 30th NL that Barbara Cleaver, '42, was married to ST/SGT. JIM CROWLEY, '42, gets a rise out of him. He says Barbara is his wife—and there is no JIM CROWLEY. We stand corrected, Joe; must be another mistake before we hear from you? He reports his brother, JACK, is in France; that he met CAPT. CLIPPER SMITH, coach of football at Cherry Point. Regarding Cross Country, Mr. Hutton resigned as coach last year—to date we have no new coach, consequently, no Cross Country Team. That may seem terrible to you, Captain of the '42 team, but that's the status of Cross Country at this writing. Thanks, Joe, and I'll be waiting to hear from MRS. SGT. JOE CROWLEY any day now. Hello, Bobbie!

CPL. PETER A. CLAFFEY, APO 562 NY, is in France, guarding prisoners of war who seem to be quite happy because they're better off than before we captured them. "Don't worry about your French, you'll pick up enough to get along. Glad to hear from you, Pete, seems to me only a short time ago that your letters came from Alaska."

The last letter in the batch tonight, much to my surprise, is to Uncle Abe from LT. RALPH BENNER, APO 520 NY, in Italy, one of my three nephews now in the ETO. Glad you had a swell trip over; best of luck on your first mission. Clyde is in France, George is still piloting a bomber out of England, (has Air Medal and several Oakleaf Clusters), young man, I'll see your Mother and Dad and tell them you wrote.

A phone call reveals that another of our Alumni has entered the foreign service of Uncle Sam. MR. ROBERT C. WINTHROP, '38, is with the American Vice-Consulate at Caripito Monagas in Venezuela, South America. Congratulations, Bob, and how's your golf? What's the dope on future trade relations with Venezuela?

PFC. ERNEST McKENNY, APO 562 NY, left school last year to join the army and now he's in France, writing home to be placed on our mailing list. Here you are, hope you like it.

GEORGE CHANDLER, AB, '43, is all thrilled because he got a brand new tanker on which to sail the seas. He expects to put in all his time on this new ship until he has enough to get in Fort Trumbull, New London, Conn. (Steve MacNeill is up there now; I saw him Saturday and he looks swell, says it's a fine school.)

PVT. JAMES J. BLAIR, '44, FPO SF, is in an Intelligence Section, now in Field Artillery. You mentioned a censor was strict, he wouldn't let you tell me what part of the Pacific you were in. That little hole in the center of the second page was cut beautifully, and certainly left no clue at all. Good luck to you.

PFC. MARSHALL A. BROOKS is off to sea, somewhere in the Pacific, FPO SF. He's on his way, but where, he doesn't know, except that it isn't the Main Line. The name of the truck he drives is the "Main Liner," and he's mad because his C. O. wouldn't let him put a headlight on it, or spotlight. I should say, I'll send you JOE DIFELICE's address; tell him to write me once in a while, too. HI, JOE!

and fixtures were placed through A. L. Nicholson, who died several months ago.

Only skillful fire fighting, heavy fire wall construction and drive-ways, that separated the burning building from nearby structures, saved the central business district of Ardmore, according to Benson. On the West side of the building is the State Liquor Store and on the East the Mainline Restaurant. Fearing an explosion firemen fought desperately to keep the flames from reaching the liquor stock.

To reach the fire our volunteers had to take chances and battle clouds of smoke. They tackled the right spot at the right time. Their prompt action saved thousands of dollars worth of property and probably several lives," said the fire Marshal.

Seven of the ten persons living upstairs were rescued by ladder from a second floor balcony and the other three ran down the front stairs. Occupants of the apartments were Mr. and Mrs. Philip Siman, and daughter, Gertrude, 16; Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Benninghove, and daughter, Norma, 21; Miss Edna Johnson; Mrs. Ann Stanley, her son, Edward, 16, and daughter, Evelyn, 18.

It was Mrs. Stanley and her two children who escaped by the front stairway. Fire Marshal Benson said that three calls to sound the alarm came in about the same time. One he said came from one of the tenants, Philip Simans, furrier and tailor; another from a watchman at the Automat Company, who had been notified by the soldier, Pvt. Daniel McBride, and the third call came from the terminal trolley station of the Red Arrow Lines.

The Merion Fire Company of Ardmore responded to the first alarm a few minutes after 2 A. M. Bryn Mawr Company was called at 2:10 A. M.; Narberth at 2:41 A. M. and Oakmont at 3:20 A. M. More than 60 firemen turned out to fight the blaze.

Two auxiliary companies were called: the rescue squad truck of the Manos Fire Company which arrived at 3:45 A. M. and the Second Alarmers who arrived at 4:30 A. M.

The Manos rescue squad truck was called because it is equipped with two 1500-watt and two 250-watt search lights. Use of the lights in the rear of the building pierced the dense smoke and aided the fire fighters.

Horn and Hardart restaurant a few doors West of the fire, was opened up to join with the Second Alarmers in serving firemen coffee and sandwiches. More coffee was served at the lunch counter of the terminal station of Red Arrow Lines and a girl on duty even found a few cigarettes to distribute among the firemen.

In the morning Mrs. Meta Van Haagen, executive secretary of the Main Line Red Cross, took over the job of providing food, clothing and shelter for burned-out families.

At City Line Ave. traffic along Lancaster Ave. was detoured to Haverford Rd., for several hours. Offices of a dentist, Dr. Meyer I. Presser, and an attorney, Joseph Harrison, on the second floor were only damaged by smoke.

The building was constructed in 1921 by Philip Harrison.

BIRDLIKE APPETITES
"Eating like a bird" is a phrase often used to describe persons of delicate appetite, but, according to zoo keepers, birds eat more in proportion to their weight than any other of the zoo inhabitants.

Driving License Forms
Earlier This Year

Motorists this year will receive their application blanks for renewal of operators' licenses a month earlier than usual, as the Bureau of Motor Vehicles at Harrisburg will issue them on December 4, according to Walter N. White, Wartime Motoring Bureau Manager for the Automobile Club of Philadelphia.

"The State is mailing them to everyone who held an operator's license in 1944," said White, "and any motorist, who does not receive his by the end of December, should get in touch immediately after receipt."

Farmyard in Autumn... from an original lithograph by Hubert Davis

WHEN THE FROST IS ON THE FARMYARD

It's "time out" for growing things... the countryside seems to sleep in the silent cold.

But there's no "time out" for the farmer who's producing Sealtest Milk. War-made needs for milk are great, and he's doing his best to keep the flow of milk at the highest possible level at this low-point of the year. Working early and late, he's scientifically feeding and caring for his herd so that your supply of nature's most nearly perfect food can be a generous one.

And that is why, though cream is still very short... we can bring you enough fine, pure milk at its nourishing best... Supplee Sealtest Homogenized Vitamin D Milk.

This creamy-textured milk tastes rich and smooth in your coffee, on your cereal, and in cream soups and desserts... and there's extra health in every glassful.

As a matter of fact, you can't take any of the food value from the top of the bottle of Supplee Sealtest Homogenized Vitamin D Milk... for the cream has been mixed throughout. Every drop has an equal share of vitamins, minerals and proteins that are so essential to your well-being... and the fat globules have been broken up so that the milk digests faster and more easily.

Get a bottle of this "improved" milk for your family today... see how much they like it. Your Supplee milk man or woman has it for you, and so does your grocer.
